

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL #1622

Recent Events

The council hosted its final summer cookout on Tuesday, September 6. On October 23, the council conducted a Degree Exemplification where new members William Sohm and Bobby McQuin were welcomed to the council as Brother Knights. Additionally, on October 28-29, the Knights conducted their annual mulching of the St. John's Churchyard and Rectory.

Ukraine Relief

The Knights of Columbus continue to support refugees from the War in Ukraine. Members can contribute to the Ukraine Solidarity Fund, which directly supports humanitarian efforts in Ukraine at <https://www.kofc.org/en/what-we-do/charity/ukraine.html>.

Life

On September 17-18, 4 Council members and 4 non-members took part in the Initiation of Pastorate Respect Life Program, a committee that will act as a liaison between Clergy and Parishioners for Pro-Life issues. On October 2, 2 Council members and 29 non-members participated in the Life Chain Vigil, where volunteers prayed and held anti-abortion signs along the Golden Mile in Frederick, MD.

Little Sisters of the Poor

Council #1622 collects monthly donations for the Little Sisters of the Poor every third Saturday of the month. Br. John Fischer then delivers the donations to the Little Sisters of the Poor's St. Martin's Home in Baltimore, MD. The Sisters have offered to say prayers for the Knights, any of those who want prayer requests forwarded to them should contact Br. Bob Krajewski.

Community

SHARE occurred on September 24, with 5 Council members and 2 non-members volunteering. SHARE Food Coop offers anyone in the community an opportunity to buy 1-4 shares of fresh food per family. Those buying shares are asked to pledge to provide the community with volunteer service.

Third Degree Exemplification

On September 20 the Third Degree certificate was presented to Pierre Yameogo. Congratulations Pierre!

St. Elizabeth Ann Seaton Chapter of GK's

This year, two of Council 1622's own, Rick Babbitt and Deacon Doug Nathan, were installed as Recorder and Chaplain, respectively, for the Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Chapter of Grand Knights. Congratulations!
